

KUALA LUMPUR BUSINESS CLUB (KLBC) WELCOMES NEW BOARD

New board to focus on widening networks locally and internationally

Kuala Lumpur, August 20, 2008 – The newly constituted Board of the Kuala Lumpur Business Club (KLBC) has vowed to continue its quest to intensify networking among entrepreneurs, businessmen and professionals in Malaysia and beyond to achieve business dynamism for all.

Rohana Tan Sri Mahmood, the newly appointed President of the Club, noted that the new Board intends to put into high gear its business networking activities to enable its members to build new business relationships and generate business opportunities at the same time.

“The new Board, which includes four (4) new faces, comprises eminent entrepreneurs and well-respected figures from the local corporate scene. The breadth of experience, skills, and passion represented by our expanded Board offers KLBC unprecedented opportunities to lead our strategy and develop all aspects of our operations ” she said.

The new KLBC Board comprises:

PRESIDENT

Rohana Tan Sri Mahmood, Chairman, Ethos Capital Sdn Bhd

DEPUTY PRESIDENT

Tengku Zafrul bin Tengku Aziz, Chief Executive Officer, Tune Money Sdn Bhd

DIRECTORS

Kuok Khoon Ho, Chairman, Kuok Brothers Sdn Bhd

Dato' Ahmad Johan bin Mohammad Raslan, Executive Chairman, Pricewaterhouse Coopers Malaysia

Dato' Amran bin Awaluddin, Chief Executive Officer, Sistem Televisyen Malaysia Berhad (TV3)

Dato' Sri Mohammed Shazalli Bin Ramly, Chief Executive Officer, Celcom (M) Sdn Bhd

Ruben Emir Gnanalingam Abdullah, Executive Director, Westports Malaysia Sdn Bhd

The KLBC was inaugurated in June 2003 as a networking, support and development organization for leadership in business and the professions, with the objective of supporting the success of individual members.

As part of its activities, the KLBC hosts the "Fireside Chat" with eminent individuals and organizes talks with visiting dignitaries.

The Club has also led business tours across the USA, Indonesia and Singapore, with significant networks being formed. The most recent business tour was to the United Arab Emirates (UAE) in end 2007 where the KLBC members met with business leaders and government agencies across Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

This year the KLBC will lead a delegation to Manila on a business mission and to participate in the ASEAN 100 Leadership Forum 2008 that is being held from October 14-15, 2008. During their visit, the KLBC members are expected to pay a courtesy call on the Minister of Trade & Industry of the Philippines and interact with key business and government leaders.

Membership of the Club is by invitation only and the KLBC currently has 100 members.
